Father of all earthly life,
Lord of worlds enthroned,
Sacred blood defiles our land;
Heaven's pillars groan.

Even Christ the Lord of all
Shrunk 'neath sin's great weight;
Who shall this unworthy land
Save now from her fate?

Send a message from above
That will peace afford,
Purge unclean and bloody hands,
By Thy Spirit's word.

And may we through Jesus' grace,
Which surpasses all,
Meet them one day face to face,
In Thy hallowed hall,

Father we are pained for sin,
Deeds time cannot heal;
How shall we abide the wrath
Of thy wounded zeal?

Healing and compassion come
Lord alone from Thee.
Oh Deliv'rer of the meek,
Hear our anguished plea!

O Lord if it may be so,
Let our children dead,
Know the sorrow that we feel
That their blood was shed,

Cleansed from every wicked thought,
Knowing as we're known,
Born again to never die
Through thy grace alone.
